

Position Description: Kincaid Regional Theatre KIDS Camp Director

KRT Kids Summer Camp is a unique theatrical experience for youth ages 7-14. The four-week camp engages theatre students in a learning opportunity that weaves together a rehearsal process (including direction in acting, music, and dance), improvised games, and other activities teaching many crafts of theatre arts. Students will apply the knowledge and skills learned, along with the fully staged production they have prepared, to perform multiple public performances of their show in the last week of June.

The position requires experience directing and inspiring young theatre artists, a working knowledge of theatre-based curricula, experience teaching theatre to young people, vision and leadership skills in managing a successful education team and program, and the ability to positively contribute to a semi-professional theatre organization.

Applicants for this role should have robust communication and relationship building skills, strong project management, business development and people management skills.

GENERAL OVERVIEW

KRT Kids Summer Camp seeks a Camp Director. The Camp Director will plan, coordinate, and oversee all classes and performances. Summer 2025 includes one camp that will include three weeks of instruction/direction and one week of public performances. The Director is responsible for managing camp/show budgets (as established by the Producer), facilitating auditions, creating lesson plans over the camp period, camp rehearsals and productions, managing camp interns and working with the production team on production needs for the camp.

The KRT Kids Summer Camp Director is charged with maintaining and supporting the mission of Kincaid Regional Theatre through the production of quality theater experiences for north-central Kentucky youth.
